

DaVita HealthCare Partners Names Oraidia Roman President of Colorado Springs Health Partners

Roman to lead CSHP after successful tenure with JSA Healthcare in Florida

DENVER, July 1, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- DaVita HealthCare Partners Inc. (NYSE: DVA), a leading independent medical group in the United States and a leading global provider of kidney care services, today announced Oraidia Roman will lead Colorado Springs Health Partners (CSHP), assuming the role of market president later this year.

"Oraidia has a track record of success in building and leading effective teams," said Mark Price, president for HealthCare Partners, Colorado. "She also brings a wealth of experience in population health management and we're excited for her to leverage that experience in expanding CSHP's value-based programs."

Roman currently serves as chief operating officer for DaVita's medical group in Florida, JSA Healthcare, where she oversees operations, contracting, clinician recruitment, credentialing, and marketing.

"The team at Colorado Springs Health Partners is very talented, and I'm eager to work together to strengthen our approach to value-based care," said Roman. "I look forward to building upon its reputation as a leading care provider in the Pikes Peak Region."

Prior to joining JSA, Roman was with Humana where she served as president of the Intermountain Region overseeing Idaho, Oregon, Utah and Washington. Roman served in a variety of other senior leadership roles at Humana, including market president of the Nevada market. In Humana's Florida market, she served as director of independent physician association contracting, senior director of provider operations, and manager of network development/provider services.

Roman holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Florida State University and a master's in Health Administration from the University of South Florida.
