

DaVita HealthCare Partners Announces CFO Transition

DENVER, March 27, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- DaVita HealthCare Partners Inc. (NYSE: DVA), one of the nation's largest and most innovative health care communities, today announced that Garry E. Menzel, Ph.D., chief financial officer, is leaving to return to the biopharmaceutical industry.

"I have enjoyed my time at DaVita. It has been a tremendous learning experience," said Menzel. "I will miss working with teammates who are having such a profound effect on the delivery of health care around the world."

"I appreciate Garry's service and contribution to the DaVita Village," said Kent Thiry, co-chairman and CEO of DaVita HealthCare Partners. "I wish him all the best as he returns to his professional roots."

James K. Hilger will serve as interim chief financial officer effective March 30, 2015, in addition to continuing in his role as chief accounting officer. Menzel will remain on board for a period of time to ensure a smooth transition.

DaVita has long maintained a strong finance leadership team. In addition to Hilger, the team includes LeAnne Zumwalt, group vice president, Jim Gustafson, vice president of investor relations, Chet Mehta, group vice president of finance, and Guy Seay, a division chief financial officer. Collectively they represent over six decades of DaVita experience and are some of the longest tenured executives at DaVita. They will serve as partners with Hilger in guiding and executing the financial strategy of the organization.
