

DaVita Names New President for Florida Medical Group Operations

Craig Albright to Lead DaVita's Medical Group Operations in Florida

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Sept. 14, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- DaVita Inc. (NYSE: DVA), a leading independent medical group in the United States and leading global provider of kidney care services, today announced that Craig Albright will lead its medical group operations at JSA Healthcare, a division of DaVita Inc. operating in Florida, as market president.

"We are excited to welcome Craig to the team and are confident that his breadth of experience in various health care sectors will bring immense value to our organization," said Joe Mello, chief operating officer for DaVita's medical groups. "His 20 years of health care leadership experience aligns with our dedication to service excellence and quality care."

Prior to joining DaVita, Albright served as executive vice president at Healogics, Inc., and was responsible for marketing, corporate strategy, government affairs and local market growth. In addition, he has served in chief executive officer and corporate venture growth roles in many other prestigious health care companies.

Albright has also served as a strategic advisor to a number of widely recognized and successful organizations, including the Cleveland Clinic Foundation; CardioNet Inc.; Patient Safe Solutions, Inc. and OneRecovery, Inc.

"I'm looking forward to joining the DaVita and JSA Healthcare team in order to help expand and drive growth in the Florida market," said Albright. "Their integrated care model is right at the heart of innovation necessary to address how medical groups and provider networks are changing and I'm excited to join an organization whose mission and proven clinical expertise are so well aligned with the future of health care."

Albright holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Stanford University and also received his business degree from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business. Albright and his wife have four children and currently live in Jacksonville, Florida.
