

Dr. Mahesh Krishnan, MPH, MBA, FASN | Vice President of Research and Development | DaVita Venture Group | @DoctorKrishnan

Dr. Krishnan is the clinical lead for DaVita Venture Group and focuses on establishing strategic partnerships with industry leaders, while remaining active in DaVita's R&D efforts. Prior to DaVita Venture Group, he served as DaVita's first international Chief Medical Officer.

CREDENTIALS: Medical degree from Thomas Jefferson University, internal medicine training at Georgetown, nephrology fellowship and master's degree in public health and MBA from Johns Hopkins University.

- Global health economics
- Health care information technology
- Innovative research
- Medical service management